
JMPS Middle School Dress Code 25-26

Revised August 1, 2025

General Dress Code Guidelines

The James Madison Preparatory School Dress Code strives to help students understand appropriate attire in educational, sporting, and other communal environments. It is designed with simplicity, safety, efficiency, comfort, and professionalism in mind. All students are required to always be in the JMPS Dress Code when on the school campus unless given permission to do so otherwise by administration, faculty, or staff personnel. Students who violate the Dress Code are subject to disciplinary action, including suspension and expulsion for repeat offenses. Students who repeatedly violate the Dress Code demonstrate disrespect for the school and for their peers who follow it.

As stated above, the Dress Code applies to students on campus before, during, and after school.

- Students who are unsure whether a particular outfit or article of clothing falls inside the Dress Code should bring the clothing into the principal for pre-approval.
- Students are not to change clothes on campus unless given permission to do so by a staff member, such as for a school event or activity.
- Dress Codes apply to JMPS students attending school-sponsored events off-campus, such as field trips, unless otherwise indicated by administration.
- Guests of students are also to be in Dress Code.
- The Dress Code for specific, school-sponsored activities will be announced in a timely manner prior to the activity, and students who are out of Dress Code for such events will not be allowed to participate.
 - If there is no specific announcement regarding an event, it is best to follow the regular school Dress Code. No announcement does not mean no Dress Code.
- Students who are out of Dress Code for off-campus or after-school events will be subject to on-campus consequences.
- Tattoos and body piercings other than earrings must be kept covered.
- Acne patches or bandages on face/body must be skin tone (neutral).
- The administration and staff reserve the right to prohibit clothing or accessories that are not addressed in the Dress Code.

General Rules for all clothing and accessories:

- All clothing must be of appropriate size to wearer
 - No over-sizing/under-sizing
 - Bottoms must be worn at waist level and not drag on ground
 - Length of shorts, skirts, skorts, and dresses must be appropriate length (the hem must extend below the fingertips when arms are held straight down at your sides)

In addition to any Dress Code enforcement procedure consequences, failure to follow these rules will impact the student's PE grade as follows:

- If students do not have the proper attire, they will not get participation points for that day.
- If jewelry is worn to an activity, participation points will be taken away for that day. The students will still be allowed to participate after removing the jewelry if they choose to. This rule does not apply to students with newly pierced ears if they follow the above-mentioned rule.

Students are encouraged to bring their own water bottle to which can be filled up throughout the day with the school drinking fountains. Students are also encouraged to wear sunscreen for outdoor activities.

Themed Event Dress Code

Some school days or after-school events are given a theme (e.g., Hawaiian, 80's, Jeans Day, etc.) which applies in accordance with the Dress Code. Specifics for the theme are announced in advance during assembly and included in the newsletter available anytime in the JMPS app. If a day is announced as Dress Down Day, students are required to wear jeans, any closed-toed shoes, and a JMPS t-shirt.

Students are not exempt from the Dress Code if there is a theme for an event and have shown great ingenuity in finding items that both fit the theme and code. Students are not required to dress up on themed days. If they choose not to participate, they must dress in the Code that applies to the time of the event (e.g., themed school days require Uniform Dress Code or themed semi-formal events follow the Occasion Dress Code).

Formal and Semi-formal Occasion Dress Code

At certain times during the school year, students gather in social settings and for school functions at which formal or semi-formal dress is most appropriate. Examples of such gatherings include prom, athletic or arts banquets, concerts, field trips to the theater or museums, or the homecoming dance. Because JMPS students are representing themselves, their families, and their school, it is vital that the best examples of dress and decorum be demonstrated.

JMPS high school graduation is a particularly important event, and it is expected that all students attending the ceremony dress in their usual JMPS Uniform Dress Code or in semi-formal dress. All attendees, whether JMPS students or other family or friends of the graduates, are also encouraged to dress in business casual attire or better for the event.

Revised August 1, 2025

Before such events, an administrator will announce the appropriate dress, and students must comply. Those who do not dress appropriately will be turned away and may be subject to on-campus consequences.

In general:

“Formal” includes an evening (or other) dress or pantsuit of appropriate formality befitting the event, including strapless and spaghetti strap dresses, a tuxedo or a suit, dress shirt and tie, and polished dress shoes.

“Semi-formal” includes an outfit of appropriate formality befitting the event, such as professional business attire (blazer or sport coat, dress shirt, tie, slacks, daytime dress/skirt/top), and dress or casual professional shoes.

All attire must be modest, school appropriate, and within the spirit of the JMPS Dress Code.

Extracurricular Sports Dress Code – Student Athletes

School-sponsored extracurricular sports are part of the JMPS Dress Code and in addition to the General Rules, have separate uniform and practice clothing requirements for participating student athletes. Game uniforms are established by the supervising coach for each sport.

At practice, whether on or off-campus, student athletes represent the JMPS community. The practice Dress Code for student athletes is:

- T-Shirts
- Sweatshirts
- Shorts that are less than two inches above the wearer’s knee
- Sweatpants
- Spandex may be worn if it is no more than 2 inches above the knee

Students may mix and match the above based on weather conditions. On occasion, the coach may establish a specific practice uniform. Students may not hike up shorts or spandex.

Permitted colors for athletic shorts and t-shirts:

- Red
- Gray
- Light Blue
- Dark Blue
- Black

Extracurricular Sports Dress Code – Student Spectators

- Tank tops are permitted
- Shorts that reach no more than two inches above the knee
- Underwear must be covered
- Jeans and denim without tears/holes are permitted
- Hats and visors are permitted
- Any sort of shoe is allowed to be worn

Personal Hygiene

Grooming, neatness, and proper hair care receive the same thoughtful attention as student dress and are included in the overall JMPS Dress Code. Judgments about proper personal cleanliness are at the discretion of the administration. For the sake of classmates and others on the campus, students should bathe at least daily, and the use of deodorant is highly encouraged. Students whose hygiene is in question may receive hygiene coaching and their parents may be notified. Caring for one's personal hygiene during class and/or in classrooms is expressly prohibited.

Highlighting, frosting, or other hair coloring must be natural in appearance; hair shall not be dyed unnatural colors. Hair must be kept trimmed so that the student's eyes are always clearly visible. Bangs longer than the eyebrows must always be kept out of the student's eyes. Generally, students' hair should be clean and neatly combed or styled. Twisting, spiking, and excessive use of hair gel or spray is prohibited. Facial hair should be neatly trimmed. Hats, hairnets, and bandannas are prohibited.

Tattoos (temporary or permanent) must be covered at all times while on campus or at school-sponsored events. This includes pen and ink drawings on the skin.

Makeup is permitted and should be applied appropriately in the restroom. Heavy eyeliner and gaudy makeup of garish or flamboyant colors or design are not permitted. Solid, light colors are permissible. Fingernail polish may be any color.
